

Bio: Command Sergeant Major (R) Sultan A. Muhammad

Command Sergeant Major (R) Sultan A. Muhammad serves on the Masjid Muhammad Advisory board and the Executive for International and Domestic Affairs and the Director of Emergency and Safety. He is a second generation American Muslim and has been severing the Muslim community for over 39 years. Mr. Muhammad recently retired from the United States Army as a Command Senior Enlisted Advisor to the Director of the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) with 32 years of humble service.

At DLA, Mr. Muhammad served as the principle advisor to the Site Director, DLA Installation Support, assisting in the direction of operations and services related to safety and occupational health, environmental cleanup program and protection, security services, facilities and industrial engineering, equipment management, family morale, welfare and recreation and facility management to include master planning and sustainment, restoration and modernization of real property. He also maintained close contact with local command at Ft. Belvoir, coordinating support services and keeping abreast of constantly evolving mission requirements, resource capabilities, regulatory restraints, customer base, and workload progression.