(D) All records of comments received by e-mail, including attachments, at any other e-mail address at which comments to the Commission have been accepted;

(E) All records (including any submission, transcript, summary, “memorandum for the record”, or audio or video recording) of verbal, written, or electronic comments to the Commission, to one or more members of the Commission in their capacity as employees of the Commission, to one or more other members of the Commission’s staff, or to any contractor or sub-contractor of the Commission, at any public or private meeting, briefing, “listening session”, site visit, or other event;

(F) All records of written or electronic submissions including but not limited to “comment cards”, written testimony, statements for the record, slides, or electronic presentations, presented by any third party to the Commission or to any member of the Commission, its staff, its contractors or subcontractors, or other personnel involved in organizing, hosting, or facilitating any public or private Commission or Commission staff or contractor event, meeting, briefing, or site visit;

(G) All records of any comments received by any member, staff person, contractor, or sub-contractor of the Commission and forwarded to the Commission as a whole, to all members of the Commission, or to the custodian of responses to the Commission’s request for comments;

(H) Any summary, log, tally sheet, database, spreadsheet, count, statistical or other analysis, categorization, or other report or record aggregated or derived from such records;

(I) All records of participation or attendance at meetings or events with the Commission or with one or more members of the Commission, including but not limited to all entries in any printed or electronic calendar of the Commission as a whole, any committee or subcommittee or other sub-group of the Commission, and any member of the Commission; any record of the names, titles, and/or affiliations of in-person or remote participants, observers, or attendees at any meeting with one or more members of the Commission; sign-in sheets; Eventbrite or other registration records; invitation, RSVP, confirmation, or attendance lists or records of speakers, panelists, representatives of the news media, or other participants, observers, or attendees; and any list, database, spreadsheet, summary, statistical analysis, or other report or record aggregated or derived from such records;

(4) Any records of reports or recommendations submitted to the Commission pursuant to Section 552(c) of Public Law 114-328, "(c) COMPTROLLER GENERAL REVIEW – Not later than December 1, 2017, the Comptroller General of the United States shall submit to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and the House of Representatives and to the Commission a review of the procedures used by the Department of Defense in evaluating selective service requirements";

(6) All records of the Commission's postings to or interaction with third-party Web sites and services including, but not limited to, Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, Eventbrite, and Youtube.

I also request (7) the entirety of any document or electronic file containing any records responsive to any portion of the request described in clauses 1-4 above (so that no portion of any document or file containing any responsive portions should be withheld as "unresponsive").

I request that all responsive records be provided in text-searchable electronic form. With respect to any records held in electronic form, I request that they be provided in the original electronic form in which they are held, as complete bitwise digital copies of the original word processor files, PDF files, or other electronic files, including any file headers, embedded metadata, and all other file content.

I request that any responsive records of e-mail messages be produced as copies of the raw "message source" files, including full addresses and all headers and attachments, as those message source files are held on mail servers or backup or archival digital storage media.

I specifically request that you not create new documents or files in response to this request, not create "documents" such as page-view images or print views from digital records, and not substitute such newly-created "documents", images, or views for requested records held by you as digital files.

If all or any part of this request or searches for responsive records are referred or delegated to other agencies, contractors, offices, or staff, I request that any referral, delegation, or search tasking instructions specifically include my request with respect to the form in which records are to be produced, so that records are not inadvertently converted to, or produced in, other forms or formats.

If you believe that you could respond to this request more quickly if responsive records are produced in a different form, please call me immediately at +1-415-824-0214 to discuss your proposed form of production and possible modification of this request to expedite your response.

As a representative of the news media I am only required to pay for the direct cost of duplication after the first 100 pages of paper records, or cost equivalent for copies of electronic records. Through this request, I am gathering information on policies, procedures, and practices that is of current interest to the public as part of widespread public interest in the activities of the Commission and the exceptionally controversial subjects of the draft, Selective Service, and compulsory service.

I am an award-winning freelance journalist, and the publisher of an informational Web site at <<https://resisters.info>> which is one of the most comprehensive and widely consulted sources of news, analysis, and background and reference information – including information obtained from the Commission in response to my previous FOIA request 2018-SP-01, and reporting, analysis, and commentary based on this information and other sources – about the Commission and the issues of the draft, draft registration, compulsory “service”, and Selective Service. The information obtained in response to this request will be made available to the public through publication on the Web, along with reporting, analysis, and commentary informed by the records released in response to this request.

Substantially more information about the Commission and its activities – including substantially more of the Commission’s own records as well as the single largest body of independent reporting, analysis, and commentary on the activities of the Commission -- is available on my Web site than is available on the Commission’s own Web site at <<http://www.inspire2serve.gov>>.

The majority of the information available to the public about the Commission and its activities, including the only information available to the public about any of the Commission’s business meetings or any of the decisions made by the Commission, is available only on my Web site and through articles I have written for my own e-mail newsletters and other Web sites and print publications.

Most of the Commission records available to the public are available only because they have been released by the Commission in response to my previous FOIA requests, and have been published by me on my Web site along with reporting, analysis, and commentary informed by these Commission records. Most of these records have not been published by the Commission on its own Web site or anywhere else, and are not available anywhere except on my Web site.

Please waive any applicable fees. Release of the information is in the public interest because it will contribute significantly to public understanding of government operations and activities.

The public interest in access to information concerning the meetings of the Commission has been explicitly recognized by votes of Congress and of the Commission itself.

The statute establishing the Commission provides that, “Each meeting of the Commission shall be held in public unless any member objects or classified information is to be considered.” While this provision allows Commission meetings or portions thereof to be closed in some cases, it creates an unambiguous, explicit statutory presumption that all Commission meetings shall be open to the public.

The Commission itself has decided that, “Minutes shall be made available to the public on the Commission's website to the extent such minutes or portions thereof would be releasable under the Freedom of Information Act.” (“National Commission on Military, National, and Public Service, First Amended and Restated Business Rules, Adopted by the Commission on April 19, 2018”, available at <<https://resisters.info/FOIA/8-AmendedBusinessRules-FINAL.pdf>>. Note that this file has not been published by the Commission on its Web site or elsewhere, has been disclosed only in response to my FOIA request 2018-SP-01, and is available to the public only on my Web site.)

However, more than five months after this decision by the Commission, none of the minutes of the Commission’s meetings – not even those minutes that have been determined by the Commission to be releasable under FOIA, and that have been released to me in response to my FOIA request 2018-SP-01 – have been made available to the public on the Commission’s Web site. None of these minutes are available to the public anywhere other than on my Web site.

The Commission’s decision that minutes of its meetings “shall be made available to the public on the Commission's website” to the extent releasable under FOIA is clear evidence of the Commission’s recognition of the public interest in access to this information.

The fact that this explicit directive by the Commission has not yet been acted on is clear evidence that this information is unlikely to be available to the public, as the Commission directed that it be, unless it is released in response to this FOIA request so that I can make it available to the public.

I have no commercial interest in this information. My reporting on this issue, while carried out in my capacity as a professional journalist, has been unpaid and not undertaken for profit.

If this request is denied in whole or part, I ask that you justify all deletions by reference to specific exemptions. I will also expect you to release all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. I, of course, reserve the right to appeal your decision to withhold any information, to deny a waiver of fees, or to deny expedited processing.

Please respond as soon as possible to confirm your receipt of this request and to advise the reference number assigned to this request and the expected date of completion of Commission action with respect to this request. I look forward to your complete reply within 20 work days, as the FOIA statute and the Commission’s FOIA regulations require. To avoid unnecessary delays, please contact me immediately by telephone or e-mail should you have any questions regarding this request.

Sincerely,

Edward Hasbrouck
